Acorn Club.

The Acorn Club met last Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Cunningham. Lesson—Idyls of the King. 5. Guinevere. 6. The Passing of Arthur. Report from committee on education.

The Children's Hour.

Miss Claire Myers entertained the children at the regular hour Saturday afternoon at the Library rooms. A good number were present and enjoyed every moment given to the beautiful stories. The sweet old story of Tom Thumb was beautifully given, and never grows old to children. Miss Myers gave an interesting talk on animals also. Mrs. M. L. Collat will meet the children next Saturday afternoon with something interesting and nice.

The Scotch Singers of Glasgow.

A good audience greeted the Scotch Singers at the city hall Monday night and enjoyed the beautiful singing and songs. "Annie Laurie," by the quartette, was fine. The song of "Ireland," by Miss Crawford, was magnificent. Her deep contralto voice is beautiful. It was another evening of pleasure given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., being one of the Lyceum entertainments.

Memorial Services.

Mary V. Reid Hive No. 24, L. O. T. M. held a beautiful memorial service, in memory of its deceased members, at its last review. The occasion was full of tender memories of those who have gone on before to their eternal home. There were eight representative vacant chairs draped with the colors of the order placed around the altar. Led by their captain, the guards formed a semi-circle over these chairs, the banner bearer behind them. Then came the floral committee, followed by the chaplain and lady members. As the name of each loved member was called by the captain of the guards, the chaplain offered a prayer for the departed soul. Then came the floral committee, with the offering, marched from the hall to the strains of "Nearer My God to Thee," and repaired to the cemetery, where they laid the lovely flowers upon the graves of their departed sisters. This service was a beautiful and pathetic scene, and will long be remembered by all present.

The following memorial program was rendered:

Address—Mrs. Bridgewater. Remarks—Mrs. Weeks and Mrs. Fleet.

Vocal solo, "From the Garden to the Cross Alone"—Mrs. Johnson. Select reading, "Resignation"—Mrs. Weeks.

Vocal duet, "Twill Not Be Long"—Mrs. Fleet and Mrs. Dunlop. Recitation, "A Prayer"—Mrs. Tucker.

A Thanksgiving In the Old Way.

Thanksgiving day was beautifully observed by the neighborhood and community near what has been known as the Norwood Chapel, about two miles north of the city. A new school house has just been completed, and the neighbors are especially proud of it. A young man, Mr. McKane, is the popular teacher. At 10 o'clock all began to arrive—big, little, old and young. Quite a crowd was present.

Rev. R. R. Morrow preached a regular Thanksgiving sermon, giving the history of the early pilgrims and the origin of Thanksgiving for the young, and the older ones enjoyed this, too. Different ones gave words and prayers of thanksgiving and praise. No one was in a hurry; the music was all good, congregational singing, Miss Martha Dunnahoo at the organ, and several leaders. The services were so enjoyed that a motion for recess and continuation after dinner was carried. The dinner was sumptuous. A long table was laden with stuffed turkeys, fried chicken, cranberry sauce, pickles, home-made, too, and home-made bread, pies, custards, cakes; there was nothing wanting on the table, and in the greatest abundance; coffee, with whipped cream. A Thanksgiving, wedding, Christmas, New Year and birthday, all in one big dinner. After all had partaken, there was enough left for two more dinners.

The following families prepared and served this elegant repast: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Dunnahoo, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Addington, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lemax, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Nelms, Mrs. E. C. Oldham, Mrs. Cora Powell. After a prayer and dinner under the beautiful tinted trees, all in gold, red and brown, with evergreen of smilax intertwined and God's blessed sunshine smiling on the party, all in harmony and christian love, conversation was held and old friendships renewed for a while, and then the voices of those in song reminded all of the afternoon services. It was decided to organize a union Sunday school. Rev. R. R. Morrow was unanimously elected superintendent, Mr. Oscar Addington assistant, Mr. McKane secretary and treasurer. Teachers: Mr. A. L. Lemax, Miss Martha Dunnahoo, Mrs. T. C. Russell, Mr. Oscar Addington. The Sunday school will open every Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. On motion, it was decided to change the name of the school house from Norwood Chapel to Valley View. It is situated at the foot of the hill on this side of the old Helms house.

There's a church in the valley by the wildwood
No lovelier place in the dale.
And may these people continue to meet and love each other as long as life shall last, and may their children and grandchildren keep it up.

Mrs. B. H. Gardner is hostess this afternoon to the Woman's Social Club.

The following visitors from Crockett were entertained last Friday and Saturday by Misses Nannie Durham, Georgie Laura Dick, Anna Hufsmith, Johnnie Moore, Margaret Hill, Lillian Price, Leola Huff and Juliette Houseman. The visitors were: Misses Katie Chamberlain, Maud McConnell, Sue Smith, Jennie McLean, Florence

Kennedy and Willie Arledge. These girls played the Palestine girls in basket ball games at the Y. M. C. A. The moving pictures were enjoyed, and driving over the city. Our girls enjoyed the visit of their visitors, and no doubt the visitors had a fine time.

Miss Orlene Evans left yesterday for a visit to Carthage, where she goes to be a bridesmaid at the Burrows-Perkins wedding. Miss Hazel Perkins has visited Miss Evans and has many friends in Palestine. She will be married to Mr. P. J. Burrows of Carthage.

Accident in Temple.

The friends here of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lee Brown of Temple are anxious and grieved with them over the sad accident of the runaway in Temple. The children were in the buggy driving the gentle family horse, when a shaft broke and the horse became frightened, running away and throwing the children out. A special to the Houston Post says two of the children were internally injured and the other badly hurt.

Choked to Death

is commonly said of babies who have died of the croup. How unnecessary this is. No child ever had the croup without having a cold or cough at the start. If you will stop the first symptom of the cough with Ballard's Horehound Syrup there is no danger whatever of croup.

The KITCHEN CABINET

BE LIKE the bird, that halting in her flight
Awake on boughs too slight
Feels them give way beneath her as she sings,
Knowing that she hath wings."
—Victor Hugo.

"Wisdom is oft times nearer when we stoop than when we soar."—Wordsworth.

Let Us Unlearn Some Things.
That sirlon or porthouse are more nourishing than round steak
That the more expensive cuts are more wholesome.

That gravies and sauces are cooked when they begin to thicken.

That water that boiled a few moments ago is all right for tea.

That chicken should be washed after it is cut in pieces for cooking.

That rapid boiling cooks meat or vegetables more quickly.

That frying is a good way to cook meat.

Household Hints.

A carrot a day eaten uncooked is said to give one a brilliantly colored and clear skin. The carrot should be well masticated as otherwise it is indigestible.

Clean the keys of your piano with a cloth moistened with alcohol.

When washing washable silk waists iron before they are quite dry and the stiffness gives them quite a new look.

Quince Honey.

Take three small or two very large ripe quinces. Pare the quinces after washing well and cook the parings in one pint each of water and sugar. Grate the quinces, remove the parings and add the grated fruit to the syrup. Boil 15 or 20 minutes, then put into jelly glasses.

Beet Relish.

Take one quart of cabbage chopped fine, one quart of beets chopped fine, two cupfuls of sugar, one tablespoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of pepper, one-half teaspoonful of cayenne, one cupful of grated horse radish, with vinegar to mix well. Can cold.

A Good Way of Canning Tomatoes.

To a gallon of water add one cupful of salt. When boiling drop in the tomatoes and cook until tender. Take out one at a time and drop into a can until the can is full. The tomatoes make their own juice.

Southern Georgia Methodists.

(Gerald Special.)

Waynesboro, Ga., Dec. 1.—The South Georgia conference of the Methodist church is holding its annual session here, with Bishop A. W. Wilson of Baltimore presiding. A large attendance of delegates and visitors marked the opening of the conference today. Sermons and lectures by a number of noted divines, missionaries and laymen are provided for in the program, which extends over a period of nearly a week. The homes of the city have been thrown open for the entertainment of the visitors.

The Correct Time

to stop a cough or cold is just as soon as it starts—then there will be no danger of pneumonia or consumption. Just a few doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup taken at the start will stop the cough. If it has been running on for some time the treatment will be longer, but the cure is sure.

Sold by John R. Hearne & Co.
